BLANKET MOVIE LICENSING | A ROADSHOW FILMS PARTNERSHIP

We provide Churches with the legal coverage required to show films from Hollywood's biggest Studios in worship services, youth groups, children's ministry and other on-site activities.

About the Licence

Screening movies in a Church or Religious Institution in Australia or New Zealand requires the appropriate copyright and compliance coverage. The Big Studio Movie Licence gives you peace of mind by providing your organisation with a blanket licence to screen films from any of the Studios listed below.

Simple Pricing

Based on the size of your congregation or parish. Set-and-forget with no requirement to report back to us, ever. Calculate your church's licence fee HERE.

One Licence, Full Coverage

The BSML provides your facility with copyright coverage from Hollywood's largest movie studios. We cover 90% of the top G rated movies ever Produced plus 75% of the top 12 Christian Movies. More info HERE.

Legal Compliance

If your church is showing movies or clips from films on site, you need a BSML to ensure strict copyright law is adhered to. A licence protects you from copyright infringement. You can find out more about your legal obligations from the Australian Copyright Council HERE.

No Limits

Once your facility is covered by the Big Studio Movie Licence, there's no limit to how often you can show films covered by the Studios we represent.

FAQs

You can search through a complete list of Frequently Asked Questions on our website HERE.

Testimonial

"The Big Studio Movie License has been an excellent investment for our parish. Its coverage has allowed wonderful activities to take place such as our Family Movie Nights which use some of the latest movies from the biggest studios. We also have plans in place for wider parish activities and movie nights/studies because of our BSM licence. A great choice for any parish!" -
Rev. David Perryman, Anglican Diocese of Gippsland.
